We try harder...

to discover: the beauty of living talents we weren't aware of the satisfaction of intellectual achievement
new friendships

to win: the Jeff game
a scholarship
Interscholastic League contests
the Freedoms Foundation Award to gain: respect of teachers maturity to face the future insight into the problems of others religious perception to become: good sports industrious students aware of the world around us optimistic in the face of defeat perseverance is the key to success, so we try harder!

Senior English

The English course in grade 12 includes reading, with emphasis on carefully chosen selections from English literature; composition, oral and written; grammar, mechanics, and usage.

In the area of study skills, the student increases his ability to follow complex directions, use reference materials independently, read maps and charts, and use prefaces, footnotes, and cross references.

The literature program attempts to develop attitudes toward literature which will enable the student to interpret, analyze, and evaluate without personal biases. Though English literature is concentrated in grade 12, selections from American literature and other literature in translation (Greek tragedies and myths, for example) are used for comparative study.

Composition, oral and written, receives much attention. Emphasis is placed on expository writing on topics growing out of the reading program. Themes are preceded by carefully planned thesis sentences and sentence outlines.

Some type of written work is given at least one day each week, including outlines, precis, essay type tests, and expository essays. A research theme is written, usually during the second semester, and final examinations (largely essay type) are given at the close of each semester.

Instruction in grammar, mechanics, and usage is based on individual or group needs. The planned English program adopted by Alamo Heights schools assumes that no new concepts in grammar need be introduced in grade 12. A thorough review of difficult elements, such as verbals, and habitual application of principles previously learned are essential.

Junior English

As a segment in the cumulative and sequential twelve-grade program planned by the teachers of English and administration, English 5 and 6 are a fusion of grammar, composition, and American literature. Elements are reading, grammar review and introduction of verbals, vocabulary development, mechanics, and usage.

While the state-adopted texts provide the major sources, library materials, recordings, and paperbacks supplement. The reading plan made by each student includes the daily reading of newspapers, the regular reading of literary magazines, and the continuous reading of books. Analysis of literary art is the approach to the study by historical periods and by literary types.

Coordinated with the reading, expository writing stems from the ideas presented in the literature. The thesis sentence and the outline are aids used in the objective analysis and the careful organization of the theme. Emphasis is placed on the student's use of sentence variety, clarity and effectiveness of expression, and choice of appropriate words as a means of developing a pleasing literary style.

"That Huckleberry Finn really was a devil, wasn't he?" says Mrs. Durham.

Sophomore English

English 3 and 4 are for the tenth grade. Appreciations and attitudes toward literature are developed by a study of nonfiction articles of human adventure, short stories, lyric poetry, Ivanhoe, Idylls of the King, Julius Caesar, a Midsummer Night's Dream, The King and I, Silas Marner, and books of fiction and non-fiction obtained from the library. The use of dictionaries and the use of reference material with growing independence are practiced. Organization of material and variety of paragraph construction are studied. Stress is given to vocabulary building, spelling, oral and written composition, and grammar usage. The uses of an adjective clause, of a noun clause, of an adverb clause, and of completers of verbs are emphasized. A review is given of the use of the relative pronoun, the infinitive, and the simple, complex, compound, or compound-complex sentence. A workbook and other supplemental material are used.

Freshman English

English 1 and 2 are designed to give the student definite, concrete language skills which he will need throughout his high school career. Basic grammar concepts are reviewed with special emphasis on important details of sentence structure and correct usage. Stress is also placed on correct manuscript form, spelling, and punctuation. Practice is given in the development of the paragraph, the thesis sentence outline, the precis, and the whole theme. Logic and clarity are emphasized in all oral and written composition.

Reading is an important part of this course. Biographies, articles, essays, drama, mythology, short stories, poetry, and at least one novel are studied. Literary terms used to discuss the various literary forms are introduced, and conscious vocabulary enrichment is accomplished by study of words in context taken from material read. Frequent and systematic use of the library is followed during the year as an additional stimulation to develop a permanent reading habit by learning to read with pleasure and understanding.

Social Studies

Social Studies deals with human relationships at the local, national, and international levels. Therefore, the purpose of the Social Studies is to aid the student to become a better citizen by developing in him an intelligent understanding and appreciation of his American heritage, and of the social, economic, and political aspects of the world in which he finds himself, and to equip him with a confident outlook toward the future.

Mr. Nelson, chairman of the Speech and Drama departments, instructs two of his students on an assignment.

Speech and Drama

Speech is designed to help students learn that successful reading, whether silent or oral, depends upon understanding, to stimulate a student's thinking processes, to enable a student to give an audience the benefit of his understanding of a selection, to bring a joy of literature to a student and to further a student's development of good body, voice, and diction.

Speech is designed to develop student understanding and appreciation of prepared and impromptu speaking. Emphasis is upon organized and reflective thinking in preparation and presentation. It gives the student a knowledge of how to become a more valuable citizen through interest in public questions; awareness of the value of thinking; and recognition of logical reasoning as distinguished from inflammatory oratory.

Drama includes a study of theatre history, beginning with a survey of the development of the physical theatre and its equipment in terms of the important theatrical periods; and ending in the study of acting techniques. It covers the principles of stagecraft in relationship to the total production.

Spanish

Spanish enables the student to focus on the language as speech by a completely audio-lingual approach. Extensive drill, using authentic native voices, aids the student with the mastery of the sound system of Spanish before concerning himself with the spelling of the language. Audio-lingual instruction in the form of dialogues and pattern drills built around authentic situations of interest to the age group is stressed.

Short conversations recorded by native speakers of Spanish are learned through listening and repeating. These provide a background for new vocabulary, improving the rhythm of speech, and for extensive drills on grammar. Oral work is supplemented by written exercises and composition. Reasonable proficiency in comprehension of an execution of oral speech at native speed is expected.

The history and culture of Spain are studied, and reading is from a selection of short stories, essays, drama, poetry and novels by Spanish authors. Newspapers and periodicals from Spanish-speaking countries are also used as the basis of class discussions.

Latin, French and German

A study of common roots, prefixes and suffixes is stressed in Latin. Pronunciation and reading skills are developed through the use of records and films. Translation from Latin to English and from English to Latin is practiced both orally and in writing. Common English derivatives and loan words from Latin are stressed. An increased knowledge of grammar and an enlarged vocabulary are developed.

French includes extensive drills in pronunciation, simple French sentence structure, a basic vocabulary, and a simple conversation. Oral work is intensified by the use of tapes, records, and the foreign language laboratory. There is a great stress placed on French achievements in all fields in order to encourage student appreciation of France.

Mathematics

The objectives for Mathematics courses are to develop an understanding of the basic structure of the real number system, to help the student develop habits of clear thinking applicable in all fields of thought, to promise courses which are of sufficient scope to enable the superior student to go on with advanced mathematics and science and at the same time provide courses that will adjust to the abilities of the average student.

Related Math is a modern approach to the study of the basic principles of mathematics. First year algebra expands all the manipulations of arithmetic to algebraic skills. Emphasis in the course is on the mathematical principles and understandings that form a fundamental part of all higher mathematics.

Geometry is designed to help the student develop habits of clear thinking and to develop the ability to visualize plane and spatial figures. He should gain an understanding of the relations of points, lines, and planes, and utilize them in problem solving situations.

Algebra 3 places emphasis upon the structure of algebra and the number system. It covers a review of polynomials, relations and functions and their graphs, inequalities, and others.

Trigonometry includes trigonometric functions of the general angle, graphs of the trigonometric functions and their inverses, proofs of identities, solution of equations and inequalities, complex numbers and DeMoivre's Theorem, and solution of triangles.

Algebra 4 covers linear and quadratic relations, functions and their graphs, polynomical function, and others. Analytical Geometry is an overview of mathematics and covers coordinate systems, point of division, inclination and slope, polar coordinates, and others.

All students are introduced to the evolution, diversities, and interrelationships of biological organisms, as well as to elementary, or mathematical, reasoning as applied to physical situations and problems.

Our mutual objectives are to develop in each student an inquiring and analytical mind, which will achieve a degree of proficiency in critical thought and problem-solving, through the scientific disciplines.

The curriculum is designed to provide a basic foundation for preparing students to undertake further work in these or related subjects. An attempt is made to present a functional utilization of scientific knowledge, in relation to all life activities.

Library

The Alamo Heights High School Library is an integral part of the total school program. The library is not just a department in the school—it is a part of every department. It is the center for printed materials; reference materials, books of fiction and nonfiction pamphlets, newspapers, and magazines. Books and other materials are chosen to fit the curriculum; books are also selected to provide for leisure reading. The library is a service agency, functioning primarily to further the school's objectives by serving students, faculty and other employees of the school. It is sincerely hoped that a free flow of communication between all concerned will further these goals.

Distributive Education

Distributive Education prepares students for careers in distribution—that is, the retailing, wholesaling, and service occupations. This training involves a combination of supervised work experience in approved business establishments and related classroom instruction. Individual assignments enable the student to acquire knowledge peculiar to his job and necessary to his success. Some group discussion areas are: school and business relationships, basic and advanced selling, communications in distribution, mathematics for distribution, sales promotion, retail credit, and marketing in our economy.

Industrial Arts

The beginner in General Shop is taught how to make and read a working drawing. With this knowledge he is able to fill out a plan of procedure sheet, which lists the bill of materials, procedures to make the project, and a scale drawing. The student is taught how to measure, mark cut-out, square-up, assemble, and finish wood and metal stock.

In advanced woodworking, the form of lathe operation, finishing, cabinet work, furniture construction, and a review of all woodworking machines are taught. Special emphasis is placed upon the study of modern design, its relation to our history and to daily living.

Music

Choral Music 1 and 2 are prerequisites for all other music courses when elective credit is desired for college entrance. These courses include a study of music theory, music appreciation, vocal techniques, and sight reading.

Girl's Chorus and Mixed Chorus include the study of works from the classical, romantic and modern periods; advanced vocal techniques; and the continuation of the application of music theory.

Band "A" is made up of the advanced instrumental music students from the tenth, eleventh and twelfth grades. This band represents the school at civic functions, school events such as athletic and assembly programs, University Interscholastic League Band Contests, and plays at least two formal concerts each year.

Band "B" is made up mainly of ninth grade instrumental music students, and is designed to present an opportunity for progress leading to eligibility for Band A." Emphasis is placed on music theory, instrumental proficiency, and ensemble performance.

Art

Art is designed to provide a background for developing an appreciation of painting, sculpture, architecture, and design. Opportunities are provided for students to express their own ideas and feelings.

Art includes involving an experimental approach to the use of materials. Design experiences include printmaking, mosaics, plaster, and others. Art history includes the study of art from Renaissance through Post-Impressionism. Current trends are surveyed at local art museums. Drawing and painting experiences stress portrait and figure painting, story illustration, and composition. Art appreciation expriences include study of major movements in painting of the twentieth century.

Homemaking

Homemaking is designed to assist the students in acquiring information and understanding of personal growth and development as it relates to their role in the family and in other groups. Pupils may acquire attitudes and skills necessary to develop a sense of evaluation, participate acceptably in the group, and assist in some responsibilities in the home with adult guidance. Learning experiences are provided to meet needs and interests in light of maturity and past experience in relation to family housing, foods, clothing, relationships, health, care of the sick, and child care.

The Humanities Major Works course is a study of the basic ideas that have shaped Western culture from the time of its Judio-Christian beginnings through the classical civilizations of the ancient world, the medieval period, into the 20th Century. Examination is made of the basic concepts in philosophy, politics, and economics. The course also includes a survey of the styles of painting, music, architecture, and sculpture produced in each major era of Western history.

Humanities is a one year elective course open to those Seniors who have the prerequisite grade average.

The Vocational Adjustment Unit is a class designed to teach and train mentally and physically handicapped students to become vocationally proficient. Pre-vocational subjects dealing with types of jobs, self-evaluation, methods of obtaining jobs, factors in keeping jobs, personality development, drivers education, and money management are taught. Older students are placed on jobs for training during school hours where they earn as they learn. In completion of this course of study, students graduate with their classmates of the same age.

Mr. Guillory, Chairman of the Athletic Department, checks over the absentee list before class.

Physical Education insures strength, endurance, agility, flexibility, coordination, and balance to carry on daily tasks. Its objectives are to acquire the proper skills to be able to participate in games for current sports, to develop respect for authority, to conform to group activity, to learn rules and be able to compete in a spirit of winning fairly and accepting defeat gracefully, and to have an appreciation for sports both as a participant and a spectator.

The activities for boys includes volleyball, basketball, weight training, tennis, touch football, wrestling, track, and others. For girls, it includes basketball, physical fitness, tumbling, golf, modified weights, track, and others.

Health provides students with scientific understanding of the body, proper attitudes toward health, establishes practices and habits which contribute to personal and community health, and knowledge which can keep the body functioning in a healthful manner.

The Olmos Honors:

The students who represent Alamo Heights in all fields

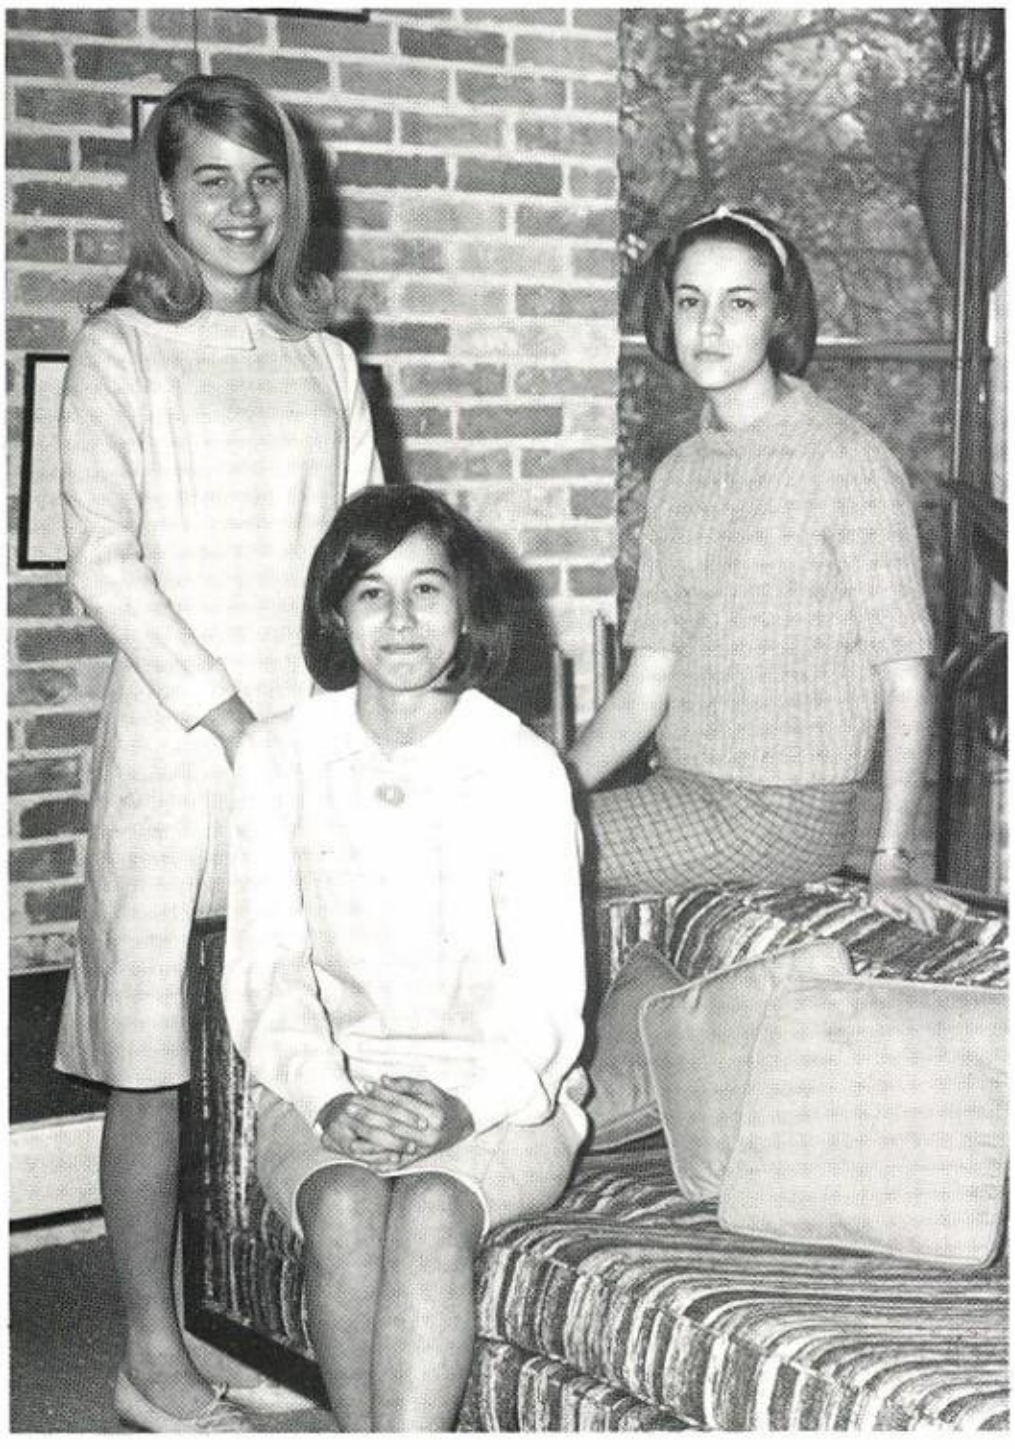
Several Heights students have distinguished themselves in the field of music. Shown are Jimmy Hatcher, All-State Orchestra, Terry Miller and Loula Gregg, All-State chorus, Sonja Gary, All-State Orchestra, Ellen Richey, All-State Band, and Linda Miller, All-State Orchestra.

Heights has many outstanding art students, who have exhibited in many art shows and have won many awards. Among them are, opposite, Cecile Russell, Margaret Webb, Linda Bellamy, Kathy Brandenburger, Carol Golden, and Steve Vollmer.

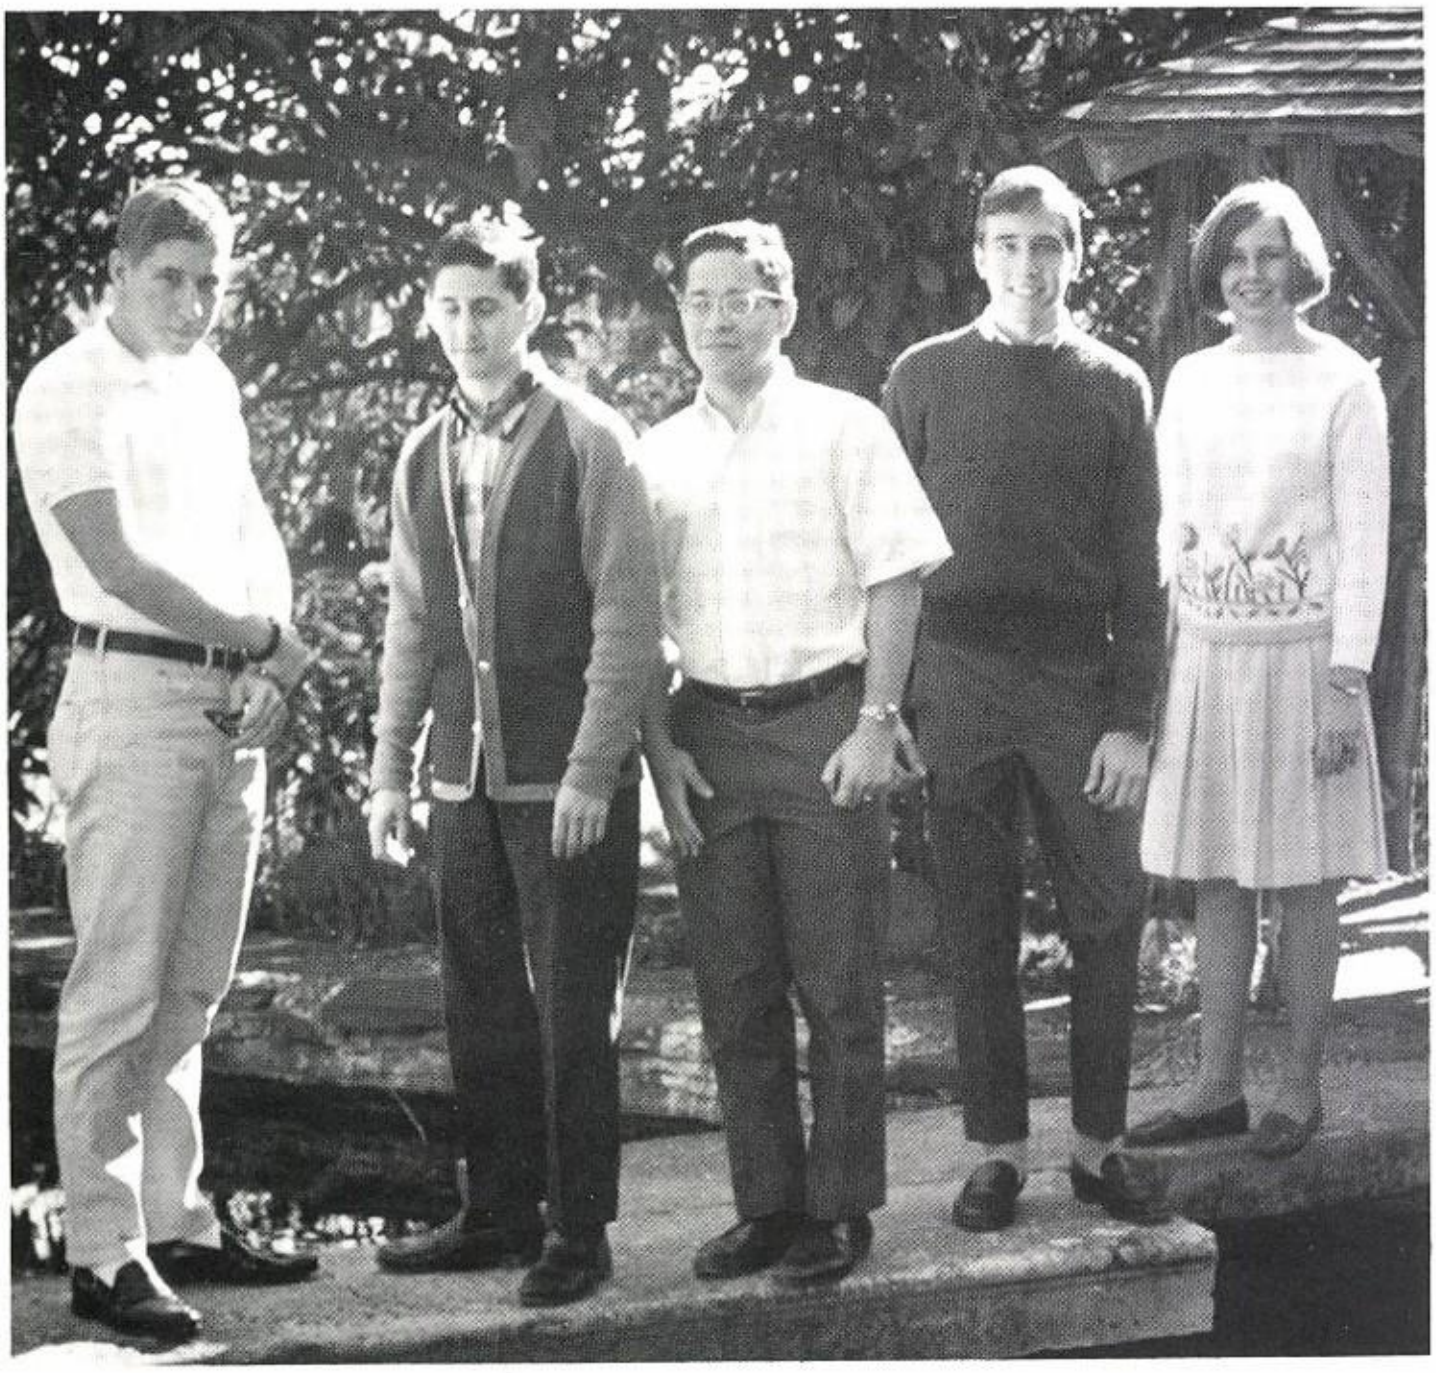
Two Heights girls are currently members of the San Antonio Civic Ballet. Resting between rehearsals for an opera dance scene are Sandie Gonzales and Lyn Peery.



Three members of Tri-Hi-Y attended the Texas Model Legislature this past year. They are Linda Bellamy, Terri Harvey, and Bette Mebane.

Four members of the Key Club who attended the State Convention are Jack Musselman, Lawrence and Willy Ochse, and John Barrow.

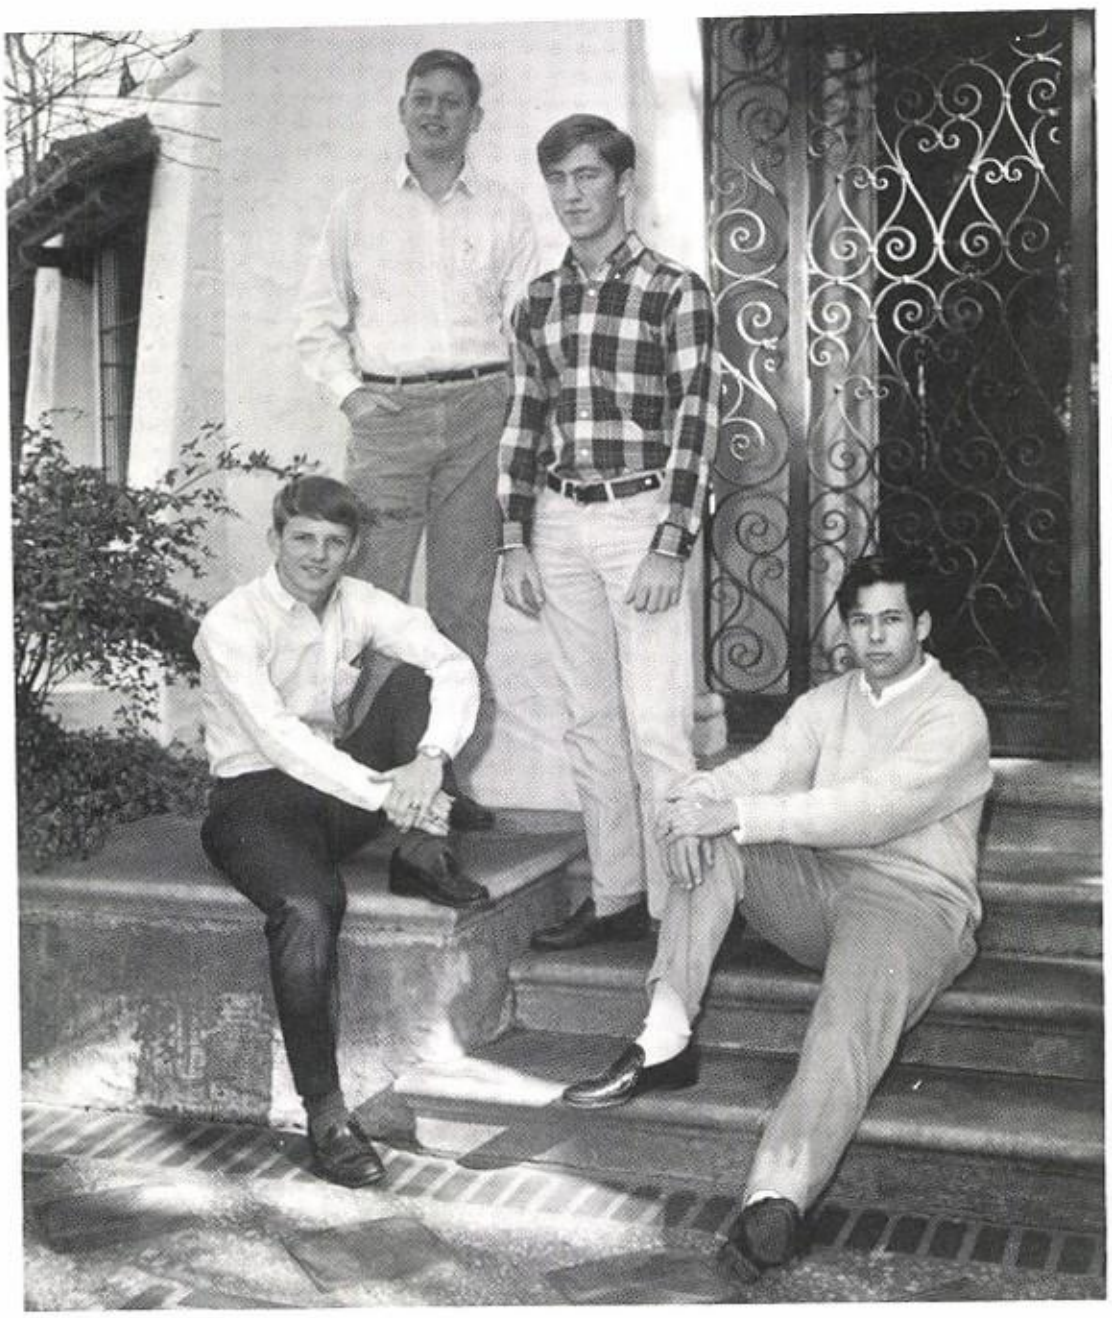
The Alamo Heights Student Council has been very active this year, sending many members to workshops and conventions, on local, state, and national levels. In addition, Heights was elected President of the Alamo Association of Student Councils. Members of the Student Council who have attended the various workshops and conventions are, left to right, Marty Cook, Chuck Jefferson, Margaret Webb, Ann Dee Ladensohn, Gil Mathews, Gaye Erickson, Mary Rohde, Johnny Karotkin, and Almeda Doughty.



The Speech Department is very active; its members attend Student Congresses and speech contests, and distinguish themselves in both. Pictured are seniors John Barrow, Gil Mathews, Chuck Jefferson, John Jakle and Marty Cook.

Outstanding Junior Speech students are Pat Mansell, Joe Gregg, Jill Vexler, Karen Chandler, and Mary Rohde.

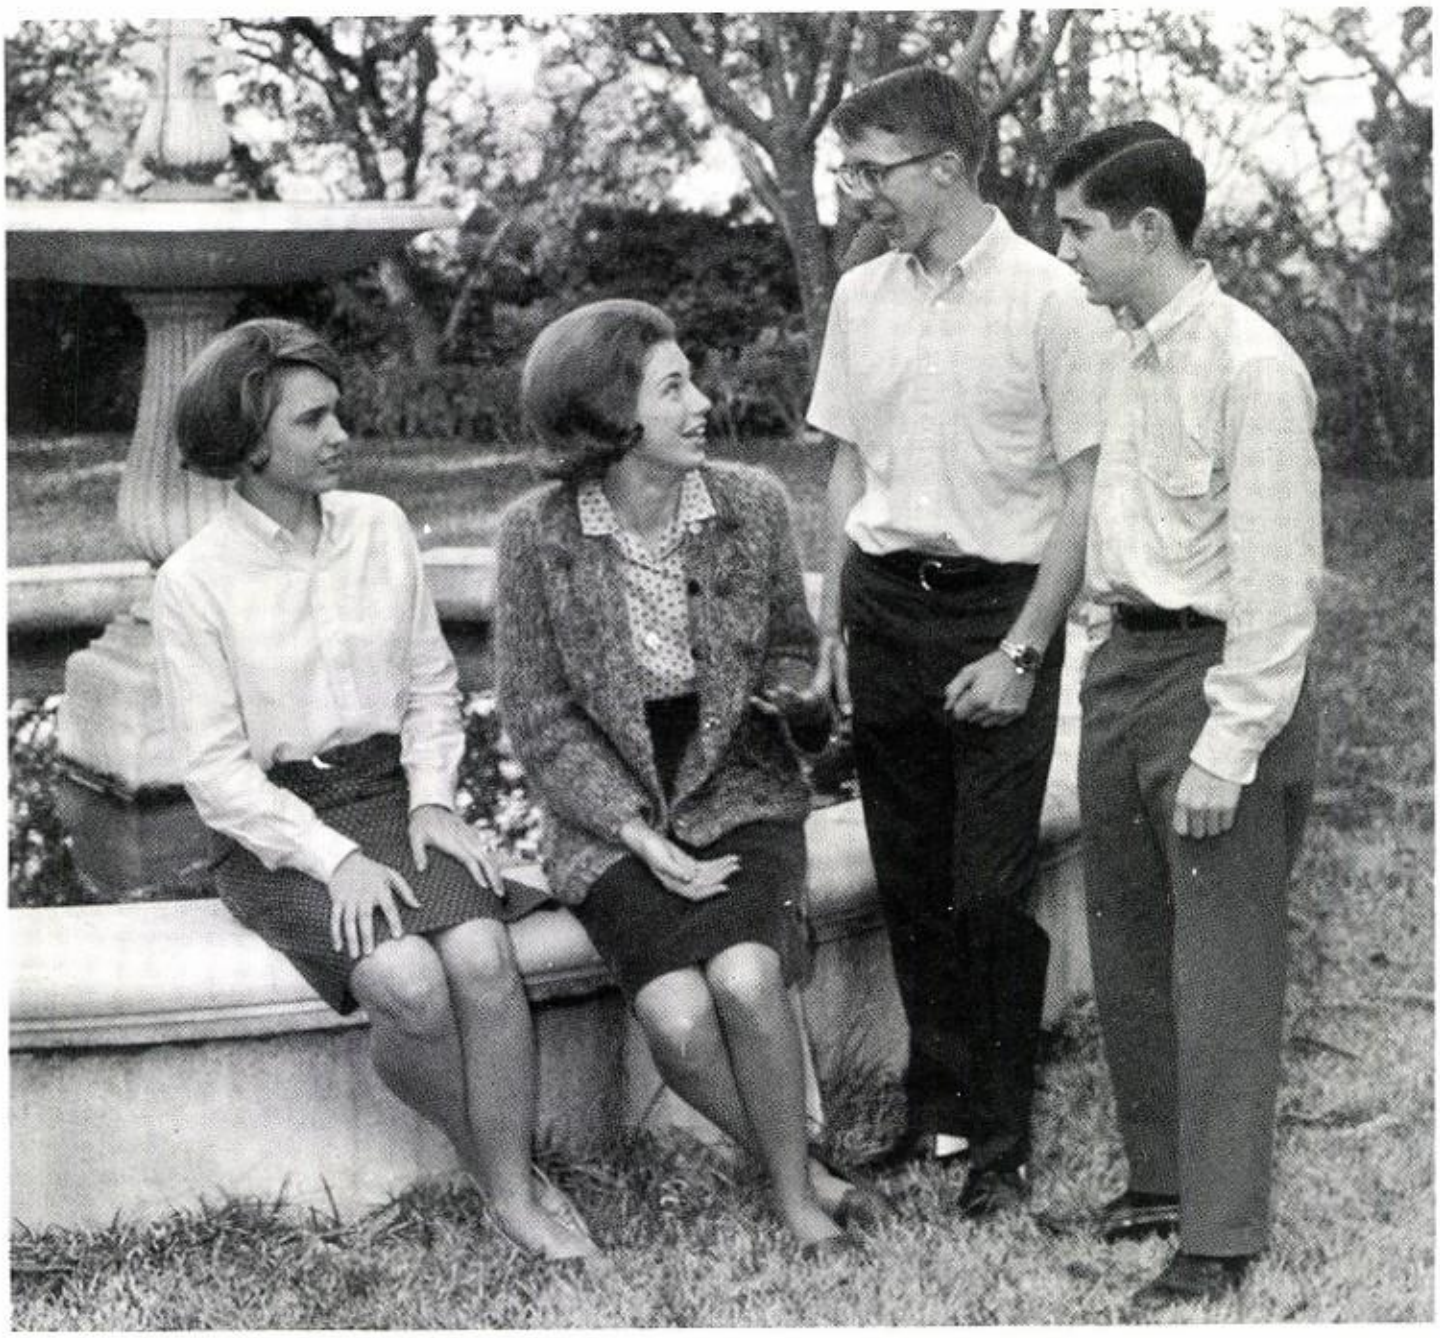
Several Heights girls improved their Spanish and French this summer when they attended summer schools in Mexico and France. They are: Neel McNeel, Monterrey, Mexico; Linda Helland and Nancy Salling, Vichy, France; Mary Martha Luke, Monterrey, and Margaret Webb, Mexico City.



Four talented Heights students were selected to attend Summer Science Institutes. They are: Johnny Cates, University of Texas, Bobby Schoolfield, Southern Methodist University, Johnny Kefauver, Northwestern University, and David Grant, M. D. Anderson Clinic, Houston.

Alamo Heights has had outstanding athletes in all sports. Shown here are John Salling, Junior Pentathlon and Swimming, Bohn Smith and Pancho Walthall, Tennis, Georgia Priddy, Swimming, Kent Lucas, All-District Football, Mike Bowersock, Golf, John George, Basketball, and Bobby Bourgeois, All-District Football.

Several Alamo Heights students were honored this year during Youth Appreciation Week by the San Antonio Optimist Clubs. They are, opposite, Howard Simms, Connie Dickson, and Marjorie Perry. Below, Jeanie Childers, Suzanne Katowski, Mac Sykes, and Gil Mathews.



Six talented students were chosen this year to represent Heights on "On The Spot", a local quiz program. Seated are the regular team members, Nancy Salling, David Grant, Chuck Jefferson, and Richard Holmes. Standing are alternates Kelly Arnold, and Howard Simms.

Members of Mu Alpha Theta, honorary mathematics club, worked on the staff of and attended mathematics conferences. At right, Doss McDavid, chairman of student workers at the South Texas Math Conference; Mike Tibbets, one of his chief assistants; Caroline Misher, who attended a mathematics conference at Garland, Texas; Howard Sims, the other assistant to McDavid who also attended the Garland conference; Kay Hannaman and Johnny Cates, Garland Conference. Not pictured; Jill Vexler and Bobby Schoolfield, South Texas Conference; Sandy McCarty, Garland Conference.

Three students were selected to attend Girl's State and Boy's State this past summer. They are Jeanie Childers, Larry Oxford, and Mac Sykes.

Tony Arevelo out sprints the Tech defense for TD.

MULES WIN OPENER 21-6 OVER BUFFS

It took a 100 yard kickoff return to do it, but the Alamo Heights Mules finally got fired up and came roaring back to overwhelm the Fox Tech Buffaloes in a 21-6 non-district opener.

The first half looked a little shaky for both teams with no scoring development. The Mules could move the ball but could not string anything together. They almost scored late in the second quarter but were held on downs on the 8 yard line.

Fired up, the Mules came back and recovered the opening kickoff on the Tech 22 yard line, but someone was off sides. The team streamed down the field on the next kick only to see Homer Delgado pick the ball up on the goal line, sprint through the over-anxious Mules, break loose on his own 30 and go all the way.

On the kickoff Steve Seiler almost returned the ball all the way with powerful blocking from an irrepressible team. A couple of plays later Tony Arevelo broke loose on a reverse and sprinted 29 yards into the end zone. Again the Mules' defense held and Paul Cowsert took in a 40 yard touchdown pass from Lardon, which was nullified by a penalty. With Riley's slashing runs up the middle setting up the touchdown, Cowsert again pulled down a pass, this time for 6 points.

The mighty Mule defense held the Tech offense to only 6 yards total offense, and failure to gain first downs again forced the Buffs to punt. Riley hauled it in on the 39 yard line, got a real good block from Tex Regner, and went in standing up for the score minutes before the game was over.

Seiler gathers in pass for a long gain against Miller.

EVERYWHERE BUT THE SCOREBOARD

The mighty Alamo Heights Mules completely dominated the ground game but came out one point behind in a 14-13 heart-breaker to top-ten ranked Corpus Christi Miller in their second game of the year. The Mules came roaring ahead 13-0 in the first quarter with Seiler and Riley making most of the yardage and quick, decisive calls on third down by Lardon. The scores came on a 2 yard keeper by Lardon and an eight yard pass to Greider. Big Tony Arevalo missed in the second conversion try, his first miss in five attempts this season.

The Mule defense really held the daunted Miller offense on the ground all night, but the secondary spread too thin as Valdez of Miller led his team to a victory. Miller could not muster a first down until late in the first half when Valdez hit on 6 passes of 22, 21, and 25 yards for the score. Their second score came on a 47 yard pass which had the Mules' secondary fooled all the way.

Time and again the Mules thrust close but were held by the Miller defense, but with the last drive ended by an interception of a Lardon pass with 1:14 left to play. Our defense took the honors, as we led 13 to 7 on first downs and 155 to 45 on the ground. One Miller back was held to zero yards on 12 carries. Bob Bourgeois, Robert Kauffman, John Loyd, Mac Sykes, and Tony Arevalo starred on defense. Steve Seiler and James Riley led on offense with 73 and 54 yards on 16 and 9 trys, respectively.

Miller player sings "I want to hold your hand," but Steve Seiler doesn't agree.

MULES HOLD OFF TRAVIS

After the first half it looked like the Mules would come out on top of a lop-sided victory like they have seldom seen in the last few years. They really came on strong in the first half, going 79 yards after taking the opening kickoff, ripping through the widely renowned Travis defense "like tissue paper." The score came on a 28-yard pass to James Riley.

Travis lost 15 yards on two plays, were held on third down, kicked, and were promptly run through again. They held on their 24 yard line, where Tony Arevalo kicked a field goal. Another punt, another drive, and speedy Steve Seiler barreled in from the one. The half ended in confusion with the steamed up Mules on the 2 yard line trying to score despite confused and slow placings by the referees.

The second half was a little different, with Cox, the Travis Quarterback, passing the Rebels to one touchdown, then setting up another with long heaves. A draw play covered 21 yards for the second Austin score. After that, the Mule defense held the hurried Travis offense for an exciting 16-14 win. The Mules were superior in all respects, gaining 169 to 29 yards rushing, 91 to 69 yards passing.

BRYAN EDGES MULES

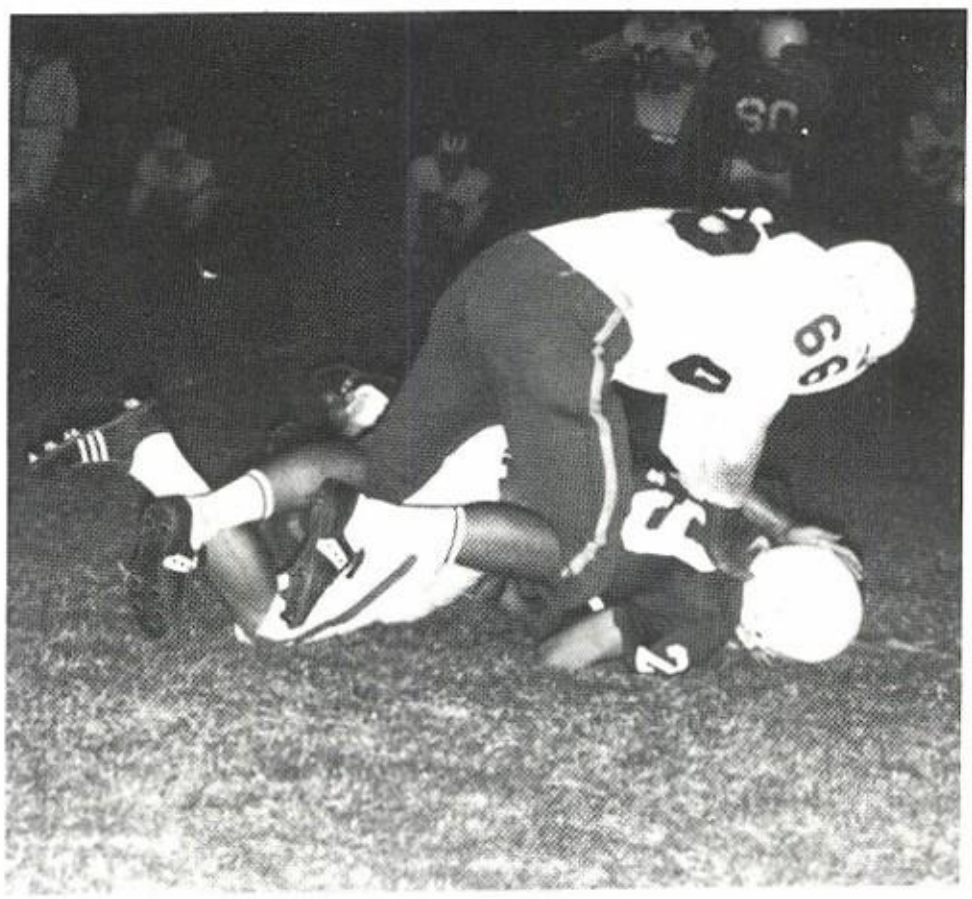
Tired and listless from a long bus ride and long wait prior to game time, a somewhat dampened Alamo Heights team was handed defeat by the Bryan Broncos. The Broncos scored early in the first period of play and again late in the fourth quarter to whip past the Mules 13-6, in a non-district game in Bryan.

After receiving the opening kickoff, Bryan marched through Heights territory where quarterback Bill Hodge unleashed a 34 yard pass to John Bond for the first touchdown of the evening. A kick for the extra point failed.

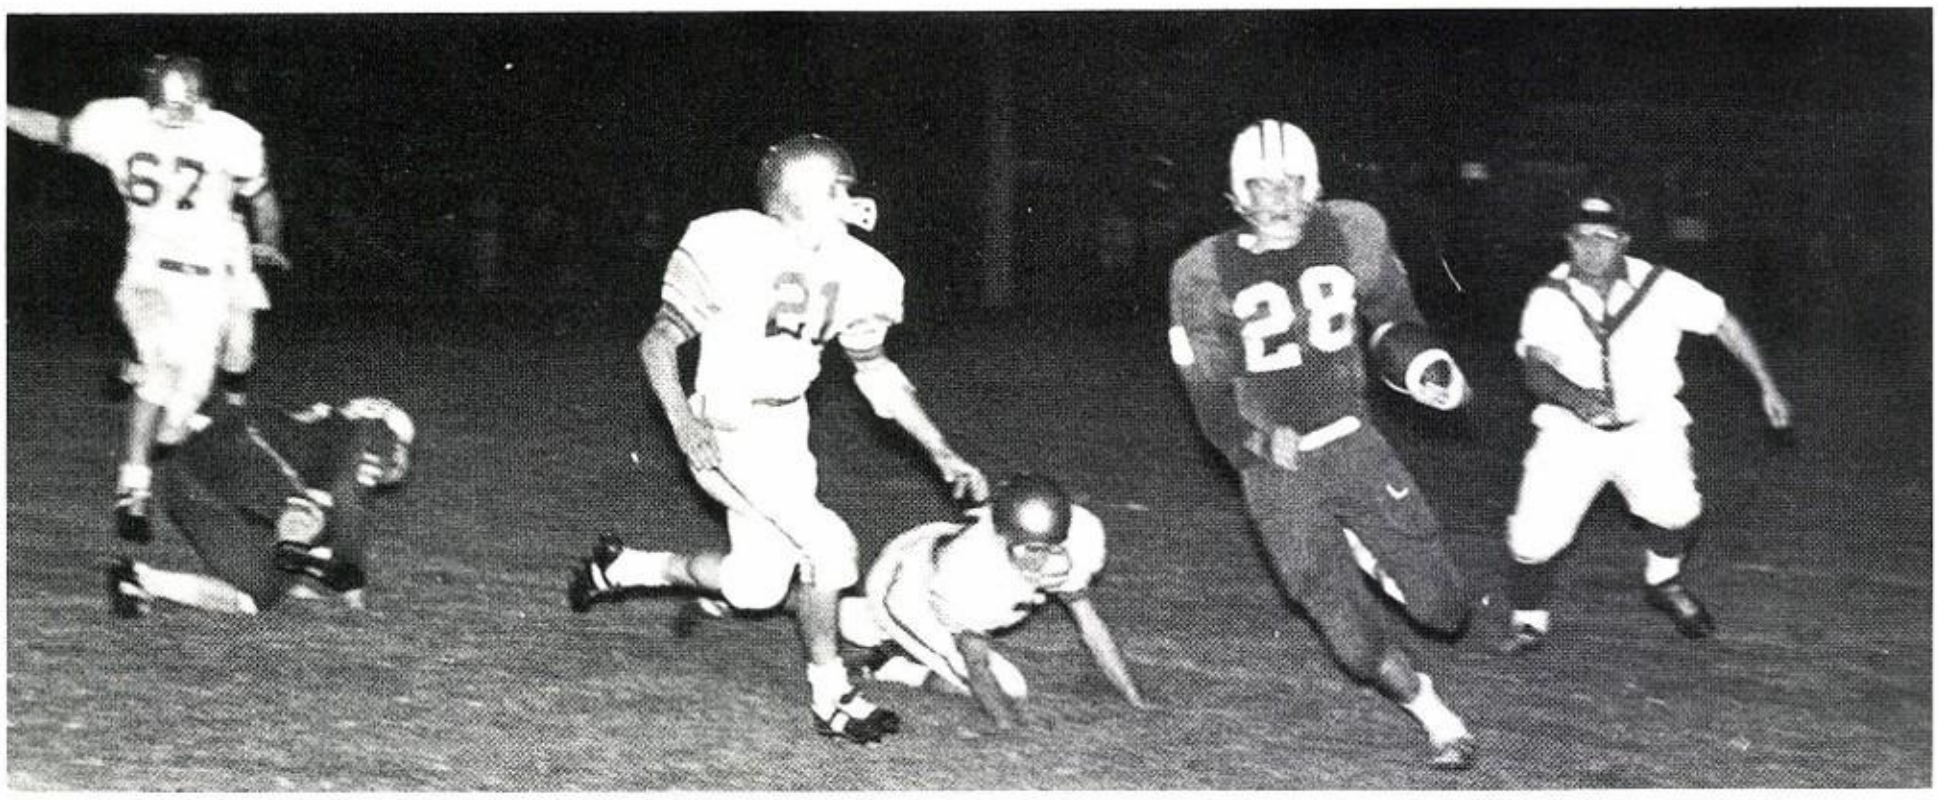
Four plays later Heights bounced back into the game when James Riley intercepted a Bryan aerial on the Bryan 22 yard line. The Mules then pushed through to the Broncos 2 yard line where quarterback Duane Lardon rushed over for the Mules' six points. The attempt for extra point failed.

Two periods of sluggish play followed until in the last five minutes of the fourth quarter Bryan again scored with a 73 yard sweep by Pat Adams. Adams also kicked the extra point.

The Mules towered above the Broncos statistically with Gerald Stone contributing 105 of Heights' 218 yards. Bryan managed to gain only 147 yards in 4 first downs to the Mules 12.



Bob Bourgeois contains Bryan halfback.



Gerald Stone breaks through for a 26 yard run.

MULES THRASH McCOLLUM

Juniors James Riley and Gerald Stone led a massive ground assault which completely dominated the last pre-district game of the year and left the Mules poised and ready for the hard games ahead with a 3-2 record. The Mules gained 337 yards in total offense, 205 on the ground and 132 via the air, while holding the McCollum offense to a mere 96 yards on the ground and 14 through the air.

The Mules started off poorly, fumbling 3 times in the 1st quarter, and also having a bad pass from center prevent a 4th down punt and setting up the lone Cowboy T.D. from the Mule 18 yard line. After the 1st quarter, however, the Mules rolled, scoring twice in the second and once in each of the last two quarters. Riley banged across for two touchdowns and a couple of two points. The other touchdowns came on a short Lardon pass to end Cary Farrow. Steve Seiler added crucial yardage when needed.

The second half saw plenty of substitutions as the Mules moved easily through the McCollum defenses. The Cowboy offense went nowhere against the aggres-sive Mule defense all night, making only three first downs all night, one on a long pass, one on a touchdown, and one on a long run which covered 50 yards.

Barry Maxwell and Gregg Miller were defense standouts, with a blocked punt and recovered fumble to their credit, each of which set up a Mule touchdown.

HIGHLANDS OWLS THUMP MULES 31-0

The Highlands Owls rode all the way on the arm of Chuck Hixon and some fabulous catches by Walter and Sammy Holden to a 31-0 victory over the Mules. The Owls, ranked high in the state 15 AAAA ranking, showed their stuff early by going 51 yards in their opening drive, scoring on a 7-yard Hixon pass to Holden. A short quick kick gave the Owls field position and they quickly scored, again with the score coming on a Hixon pass to Ekis. The deepest penetration of the night by the Mules came after Gerald Stone broke around the left end for 21 yards. The Mules couldn't muster an attack and were forced to punt. The Owls scored again on an 11 yard field goal by Walter Huntley and a 3 yard Hixon pass capping a 75 yard drive. A fumble gave the Owls possession after the kickoff, and Ralph Krueger led a tough Mule defense that regained the ball. Tightening up on the Owls, the Mules showed a more rugged defense for the rest of the game, with Bob Bourgeois playing an outstanding game. Mac Sykes turned in his usual inspired game, and Robert Kauffman also played aggressively.

Mules Win Two Years in a Row With Win Over Jeff

Gerald Stone sprints past the last defender and scores on a 27 yard run.

Jack Greider set the pace as the "We Try Harder" team rolled over the Jefferson Mustangs 14-6 in a one-sided contest for the Mule's second victory in as many years over the traditional rivals. Greider, although hampered by a bad knee, refused to be tackled on the second play of the game and ran 59 yards to the 6-yard line. Duane Lardon went in for the score, and Tony Arevalo kicked the extra point. An aggressive Mule defense forced the Mustangs to punt, and the third play from scrimmage saw Greider again break loose from a swarm of tacklers for a 60 yard run to the 27 yard line. Two plays later Gerald Stone sprinted into the end zone for the T. D. Arevalo again converted and the score was 14-0. The Mule defense manhandled the Mustangs until late in the half, when a long pass play fooled the secondary and scored. Robert Marshall knocked down the extra point try. Bourgeois, Corrigan, Krueger, Marshall, and Arevalo, aided by Albaugh, Riley, and Stone, held the Mustangs back in the second half, despite inferior field position.

Jack Greider amazingly ran 60 yards after being in this situation.

Pursuit such as this was typical of the determined Mule defense, as Bourgeois, Loyd, and Groos rushed in after Sykes and Stone hauled down Barney Harris.

Mac 14-12 Victor in Heartbreaker

Although the Mules pushed the powerful MacArthur Brahmas all over the field, the breaks were consistently against the aggressive team and, although they time and again fought back from inferior field position and fumbles, failed in a last minute attempt to put a score on the board which might partially represent the victory which they had so truly earned. The Mules were superior to the Brahmas in every category, including fumbles and penalties, and managed to control the ball throughout the game. The Mules drove past the Mac 20 yard line 6 times in all, but only managed to score twice against the bewildered Mac defense as the Mules fumbled on the 16, the 7, and the 23 and were held once. The Brahmas were able to penetrate the Mule 20 yard line only twice, but scored both times and made one two point conversion to make the difference. Their winning score was aided by 39 yards in penalties. Stone and Riley had 120 yards and 115 yards on the ground, respectively, and Lardon hit for 6-9 and 87 yards. A magnificent defensive effort was led by Mac Sykes, Kent Lucas, and Ralph Krueger. In the offensive line, which consistently out hit the Mac line, Bob Bourgeois, John Loyd, and the rest of the line led an attack which rolled up 318 yards. The team was lauded for its fine effort throughout the game and the spirit which was shown in its attitude towards never giving up.

Sheehan and Co.

Run Over Mules 35-8

A powerful Lee football team, paced by all-stated Pat Sheehan, ground out a 35-8 win over a stubborn but outclassed Alamo Heights team. Sheehan scored four times and carried eight others for 157 yards rushing. The Mules' defense held Lee the first two times it had the ball, but then Sheehan sprinted around right end and ran 66 yards for the touchdown. Later that period Sheehan again broke through right tackle and quickly went 68 yards for the touchdown. In the second quarter Sheehan intercepted a Lardon pass, then in turn Steve Seiler intercepted one of Lee's passes to set up the Mules' lone score, which came on Gerald Stone's 13 yard sprint following a 19-yard Lardon-to-Seiler pass. Then the Vols ground out a 29-yard march for the score to make it 22-8 at the half. Sheehan's 49-yard punt return was the highlight of the second half, as the Mules proved stubborn in the third quarter, only to have the Vols drive 63 yards in fifteen plays for the game's final tally. The scoring play came on a pass lateral play that again saw Sheehan sidestep one defender and romp into the end zone untouched. The Vols were impressive as they prepared for their next week's win over MacArthur and subsequent victories in the State playoffs.

Edison Upsets Mules

The lightly regarded Edison Bears cashed in on two 3rd quarter fumbles to pull out a victory over the Mules and end the season on a sour note. The Mules built up a dissappointing 6-0 lead in the first half with a dogged defense and the running of Gerald Stone. Their lone score came on a 54 yard drive in seven plays. This drive was sparked by Stone's 39 yards on two carries. Lardon scored from the 2. The Mule defense looked like 6 points would be enough until the Bears recovered two third quarter fumbles and went in for the score after both of them. The Mule offense just couldn't go after this, fumbling two more times before the night was over. The game saw some fierce competition from both sides. Tony Arevalo broke through many times in the first half to nail the Edison quarterback for losses, and Kent Lucas showed some fine playing, also. The loss was a bitter one for the determined team which had shown its fine spirit and determination throughout the season, only to see itself on the short end of many disheartening scores, even though it had been way ahead in the statistics.

The varsity baseball team started without a single returning letterman and only three seniors. Displaying great pride, spirit, and determination, they battled to a 13-14 season record and a 3-7 district record which put them in a tie for fourth place. In pre-season games the Mules twice defeated McCollum, the district 16 AAAA champions.

John George and Steve Swanson, seniors and team captains, were also top scorers with 451 and 280 points, season total, respectively. George and Jeb Baird were top free throw shooters with 199 and 66 points, respectively. The leading rebounders were Baird and Gerald Stone, with 122 and 88, respectively, for the season.

Highlands is Dumped by the Mules

The Mules opened up their 15AAAA district play with 57-47 victory over Highlands. Highlands, which came into the district play as one of the favorites, was quickly put to a disadvantage from an aggressive Mules defense and some sharp shooting by John George and Steve Swanson, senior co-captains. George was everywhere on defense, grabbing rebounds and stealing the ball. Meanwhile, he pumped in 28 points and, accompanied with Swanson's 14 points, this quickly spelled defeat for the Owls. The Mules had a 7 point lead throughout most of the game, although the Owls came within 3 points in the third quarter, only to see the Mules have an 18 point lead in the fourth quarter to win finally by 10 points.

Jefferson Pulls Away With 58-46 Victory

The Mules were really fired up as they started the game against Jefferson, and with an aggressive defensive game, they maintained a slim lead during the first quarter. This lead was strengthened at the start of the second quarter, only to see the Mustangs have a series of lucky breaks and, aided by foul shots, they pulled within three points of the Mules at the half. The second half was all Jefferson although the Mules put up a strong but discouraging and losing fight. Swanson led the Mules with 12 points and was closely followed by John George and David Deaton, both with 11 points. Gerald Stone came into the game late and showed some fine rebounding.

Mac 56, Mules 52 in Thriller

Coming into the MacArthur game the Mules were really fired up. The game started with fine support from both schools present, as the packed stands cheered their teams on. The Senior boys were especially outspoken. The game started as a runaway for the Mules, for although it was close in the opening moments, John George and Jeb Baird quickly pumped in several baskets to give the Mules the lead. A slow 2nd quarter had the Brahmas within 10 points, 28-19, at the half. The third quarter saw the Brahmas explode, showing the form which later led them to second place in district. The Mules came back strong in the fourth quarter, but the officials gave MacArthur the breaks as they won 56-52 in the last minutes, by foul shots. George was high man again, this time with 18 points, while Jeb Baird had 14 points, most of them in the 1st quarter.

Lee 65, Mules 53

The Alamo Heights Mules had the 2nd highest scorer in the league with John George, but the Lee Volunteers had the top scorer in 6'9" Steve Niles. The Vols had a steady lead throughout, although the Mules came close when they finally decided to use their full court press. When they took it off, the Vols regained their lead and coasted in with a 65-53 victory, even though Steve Swanson had 17 points and George followed with 16 points.

Edison Upsets Mules 68-67 in Three Overtimes

The Edison Bears pulled a big upset as they defeated the Mules 68-67 in three overtimes after the Mules had tied it by 59-59 at the end of the 4th quarter. The Bears, fired up because of an unsuccessful season so far, led 33-26 at the half, but the Mules finally came alive and tied it by the end of the regulation game. Then came the frustrating periods. The Mules put on an agonizing freeze on the ball, scoring only 2, 4, and 2 points in the 3 periods. The freeze finally proved their undoing however, for John George had to sink a long set shot to tie it up at the end of the second overtime, and when Edison put on the pressure in the third overtime, the Mules missed 3 foul shots to lose by one. George and Moskowitz led with 22 points each, and Baird had 12 points.

Mules Overhaul Highlands, 61-58

The Mules let out their frustrations in the second half of the game to overcome a halftime deficit and win 61-58 over the stumbling Highlands Owls. Hitting 79 per cent of their shots and led by Baird and Stone who got the rebounds, the Mules proved too much for the Owls. John George had 15 points to be high point man again and maintain his position as second high man in the district in the scoring department. Swanson and Baird followed up with 12 points apiece.

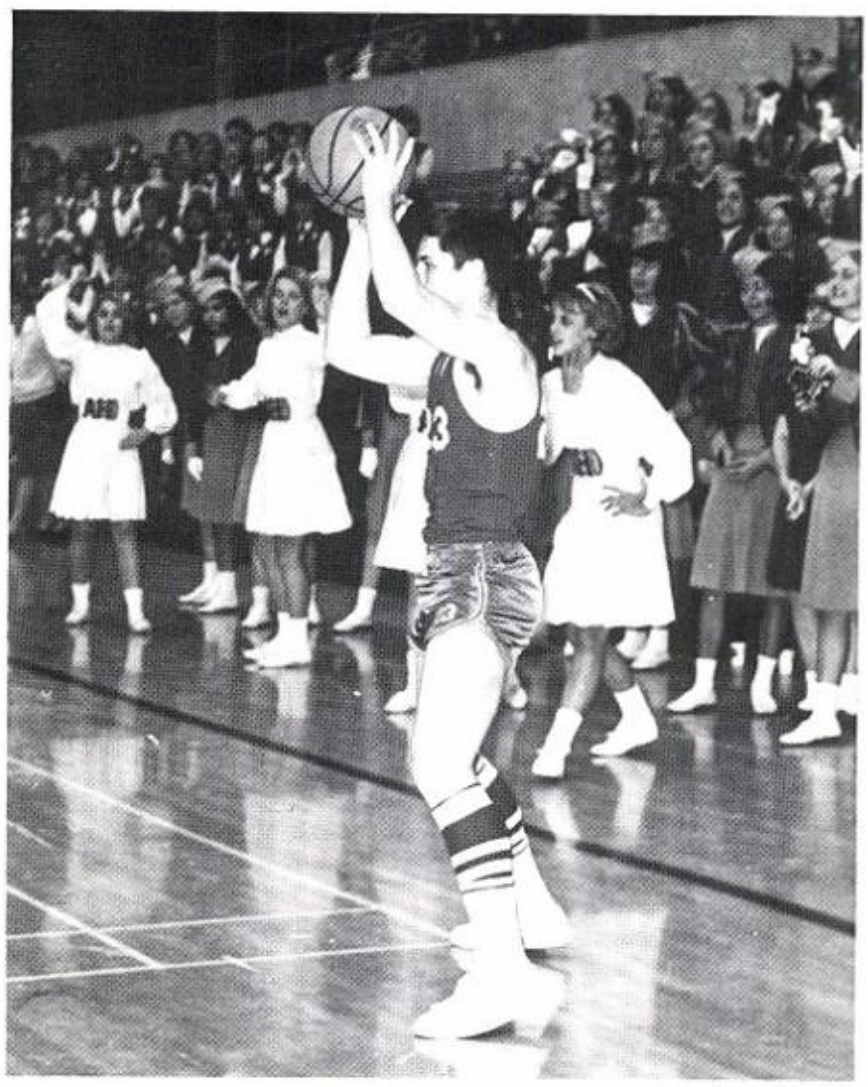
Stampeding Brahmas Down Mules 63-47

An intent MacArthur basketball team came to play ball, riding on a long winning streak and aiming at a play-off with Lee. It found an Alamo Heights team which decided on a disastrous stategy of slowdown-ball and only short shots. Because of this, John George, previously secure in his position of second high district scorer (most of his points from outside shots), scored only 8 points, the Brahmas consistently broke around and through an inadequately prepared game plan, and the Mules were swamped 63-47 in a game which saw free substitution on both sides. Gerald Stone and Jeb Baird showed fine determination defensively. Stone hit for 8 points, and Steve Swanson was high man for the night with 16 points.

Mules Fade, Jeff Wins 73-63

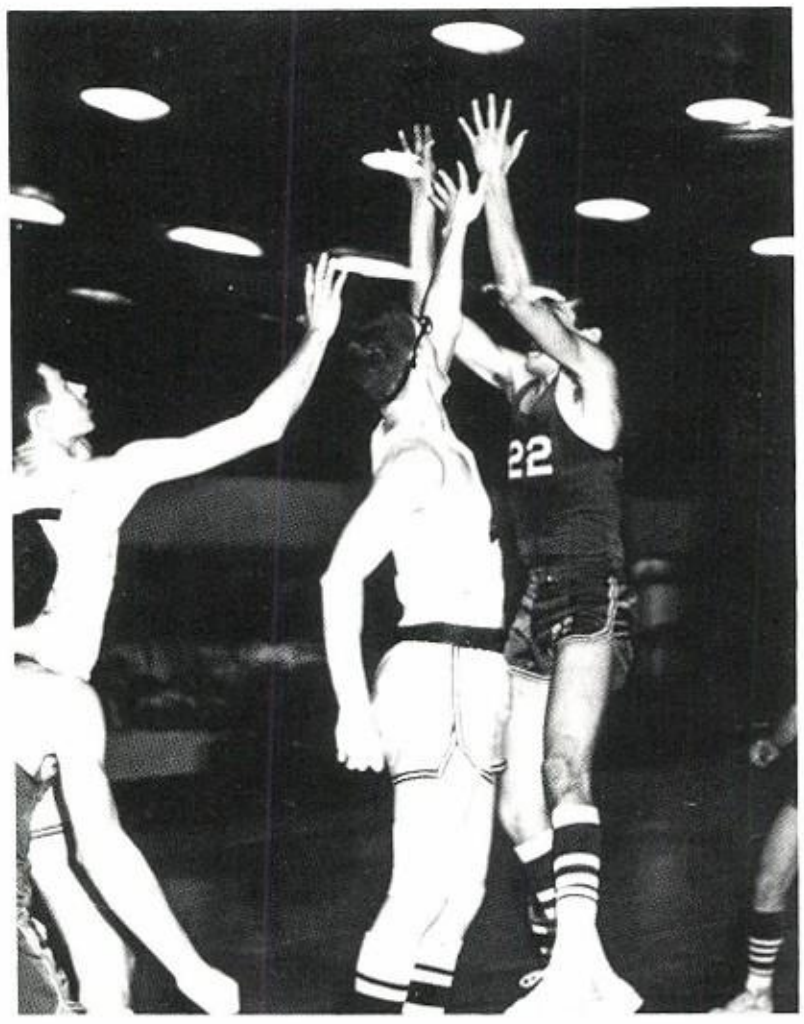
The Mules made it close for one half, faded out on defense the next half and lost a 73-63 decision against the Thomas Jefferson Mustangs. Although the Mules led for a time, the Mustangs went ahead by three points at the half, then just passed the ball to their big center who scored most of the points in the second half. Despite a 20 point fourth quarter, the Mules just could not rebound on defense and the Mustangs pounced-in the points. Jimmy Davis, who showed fine ball handling ability and defensive prowess throughout the year, showed his determination whenever in the game. Moskowitz, Swanson, and George scored 14, 12, and 17 points respectively, despite a crippling game tactic which disallowed long shots. Tommy McIntyre, a sophomore, saw plenty of action, and showed promise for the future.

Jimmy Davis stands alone in the corner.



District Champions Lee Beat Miscued Mules 63-43

A determined Mules team, hampered by the game strategy that had proved so disastrous against Mac the previous week, went down to defeat against a powerful Lee team. Lee, which later defeated MacArthur for the district championship, held down a Mule offense which was designed to go only for layups. John George hit for 14, Steve Swanson for 10, and Gerald Stone for 5, even though they were unable to take advantage of their long shot ability. Lee dominated the whole game, as their height advantage showed early. 6-9 All-State Steve Niles led the Volunteers.



Steve Swanson leaps high to shoot over the defender and score two points.

Mules Defeat Bears in Closeout

The Mules maintained a slim but steady lead over the Edison Bears to win 53 to 50 and push the bears further into the cellar after this last district game. Steve Swanson was the big gun for the Mules, scoring 19 points and playing a fine defensive game.

Somehow the game strategy just didn't get the ball to George, however, and with only 6 points he went from 2nd to 4th in the district race. Defensively, however, he shone. Gerald Stone turned in a fine performance, with 15 points to his credit. David Deaton followed with 8 points. As the gun went off and the Mules finished with another district win, the senior boys rushed out on the court and carried Swanson and George into the showers.

Captains "65-66"

The two players unanimously chosen by their teammates as captains for the season were the two senior starters John George and Steve Swanson. Both figured prominently in the action of the Mules' games, with George the leading scorer of the team with 451 points, good enough for fourth place in the league scoring race, and Swanson's 280 points for second place on the team. Both captains were named to the district 15 AAAA all-district team, George to the second team and Swanson to the honorable mention.

STATE CHAMPS

The Alamo Heights Varsity golf team of 1966 is faced with the formidable role of being the favored team to win the State AAAA championship for a record four times in a row. The team lost only one member of the team that won the championship last year, and with a roster of Lonnie Walthall, Mike Bowersock, Jack Partain, and Lee Willoughby, with fine support from sophomore Joe Anderson and seniors Kenny Thomas, and Larry Oxford the Mules are a formidable opponent for any team in the state. The Mules placed 1st at Del Rio, 1st at Bastrop, second at the Northeast Invitational, and a close second at the Border Olympics. The past record of the team is phenomenal when it is considered that to reach the state tournament a team must come in first or second in its own district, then win the regional tournament. The only stiff competition in district 16AAAA is Lee, and the team is assured a place in the regional tournament. Then comes the difficult job of winning the regional and state tournaments for a fourth State championship in a row. School enthusiasm is high as the season runs on.

Swimming Team

The end of the 1966 swimming season found the Mules' team with a one and one record against MacArthur and a loss to Lee in a dual meet competition. The swimmers entered the S.M.U. relay meet and the University of Texas invitational swimming and diving championships, placing relay teams in the top six in the state at both meets. The Mules hosted the annual Alamo Heights invitational meet and finished fourth in the meet which hosted teams from all parts of the state. The meet was won by Lamar of Houston, but the Mules avenged their defeat to Lee, who placed fifth in the meet. At the district Heights finished third, out-scored by the Mac and Lee teams which outnumbered them two-to-one all season. The Mules participated in the state high school championship in Houston, where the swimmers must have qualifying times to attend the meet.

TENNIS

This year's tennis team is ranked as one of the best in the city, and contains sophomore, Poncho Walthall, one of the nation's best young players. They have started the season well, and have won the Thanksgiving Tournament in Corpus Christi, the Corpus Christi International Scholastic Tournament and the Austin Invitational Tournament. Walthall and junior, Bohn Smith, won the doubles at Corpus, the New Orleans National Invitational Tournament, and the Thanksgiving Corpus Tournament. Pancho Walthall won the singles competition at the San Antonio Interscholastic Tournament. They size up as one of the strongest teams Alamo Heights has ever had, and are strong contenders for the city title.

Upon the merits of scholarship, leadership, service, and character, the faculty each year selects outstanding juniors and seniors for membership in the Alamo Heights chapter of the National Honor Society. This honorary club was established for the purpose of creating an enthusiasm for scholarship, stimulating a desire to render service, promoting worthy leadership, and encouraging the appreciation of achievement in the pupils of Alamo Heights. Induction into the National Honor Society is the highest honor a student can achieve in high school.

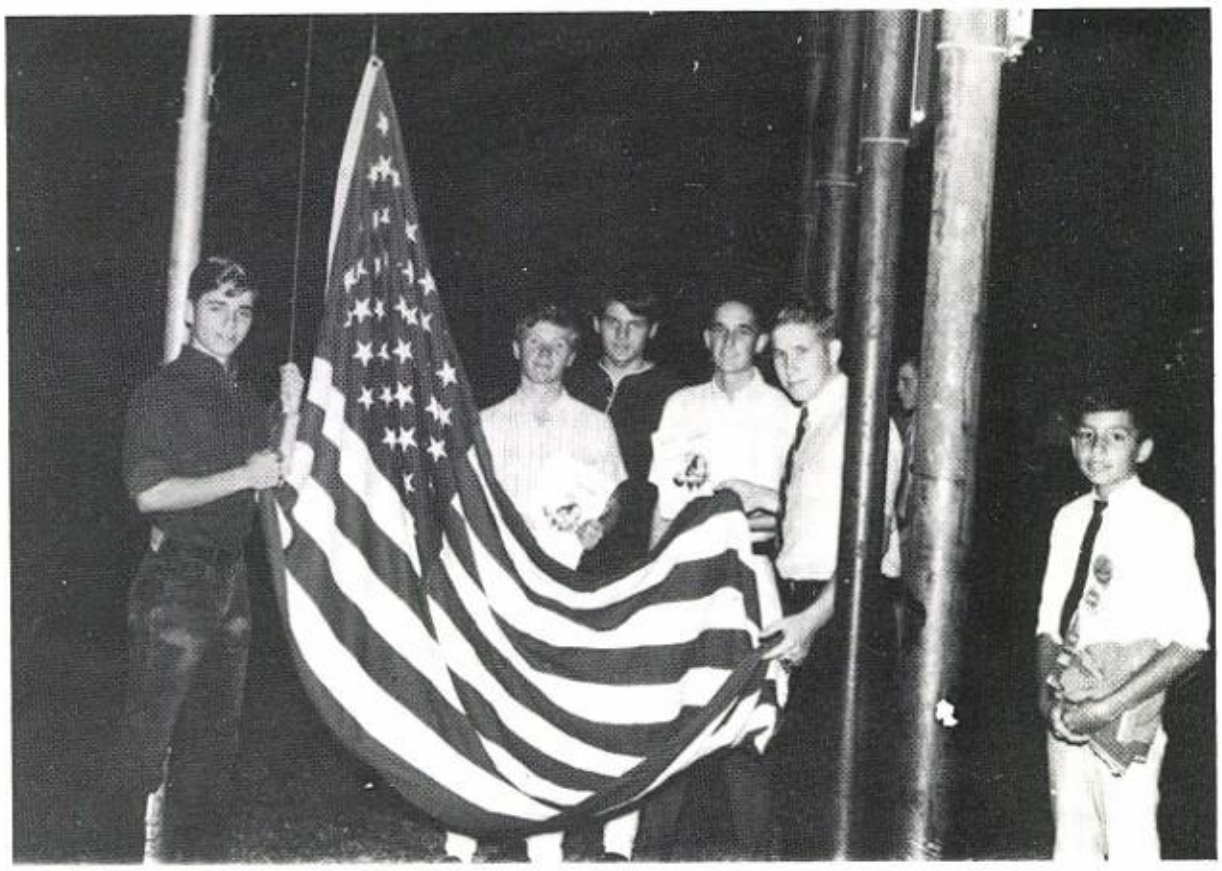
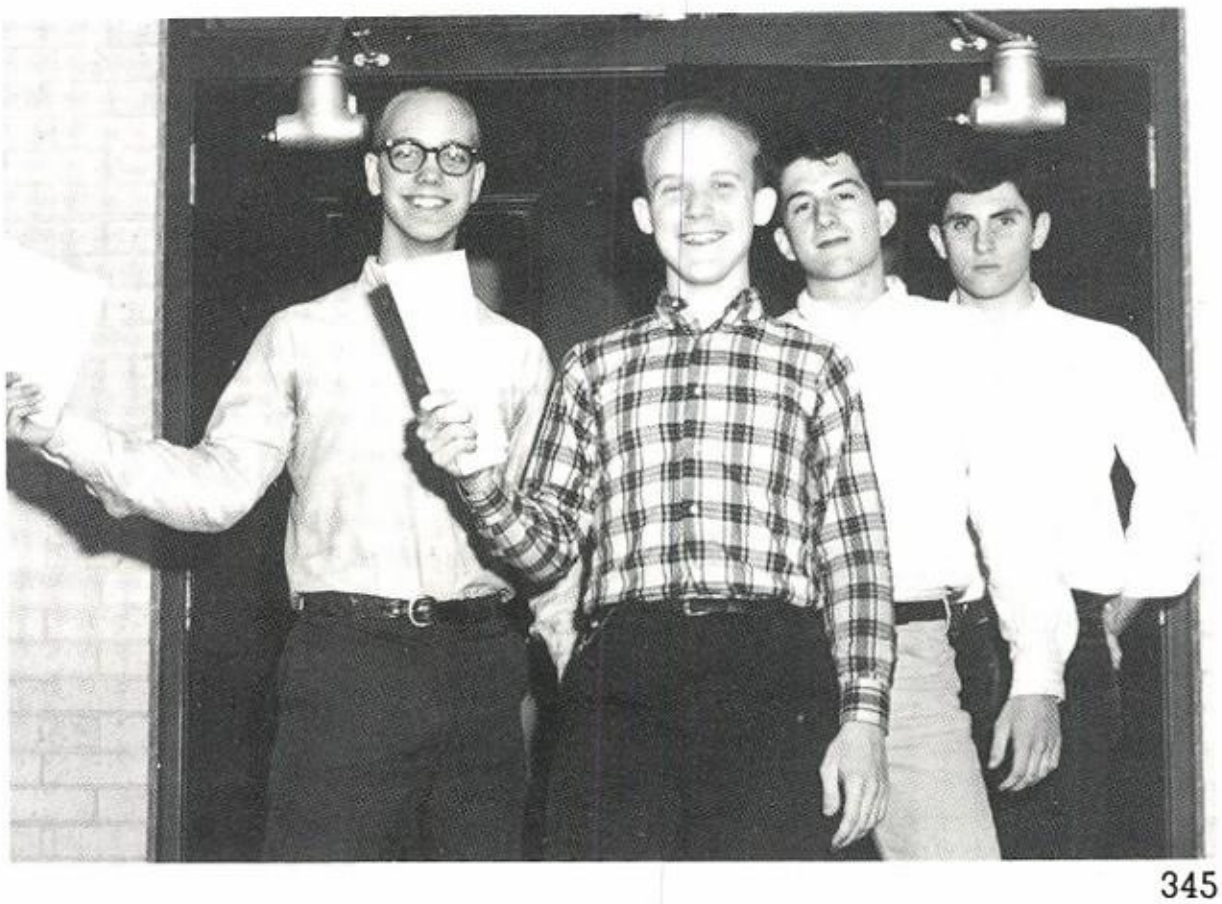
Key Club Presidents of Lee, Mac, and Heights award Judge Solomon Casseb, a "Certificate of Appreciation" for his speech at an inter-club meeting.



Key Clubbers sell programs at football games and raise the flag. They boast that they successfully completed all projects.



One of the major projects of the club was selling programs at "Fiesta Noche del Rio." A profitable venture, it enabled the club to award its annual scholarship.

ANSWERS

The moon stares down at me from her lofty perch
And demands--
"What reason have you for being there?"
I stand—as if dumb—
Unable to answer.
I run inside to the people and the laughter,
Knowing they will ask me no such questions,
For they have no answers.

MEANTIME

Interim between dawn
  And daybreak
When the world halts
  In retrospect
Of the night passed

Deciding for itself
Whether man
Shall persist in life
  Or publish
Posthumously the record

Of a life
Thought to be Eternal

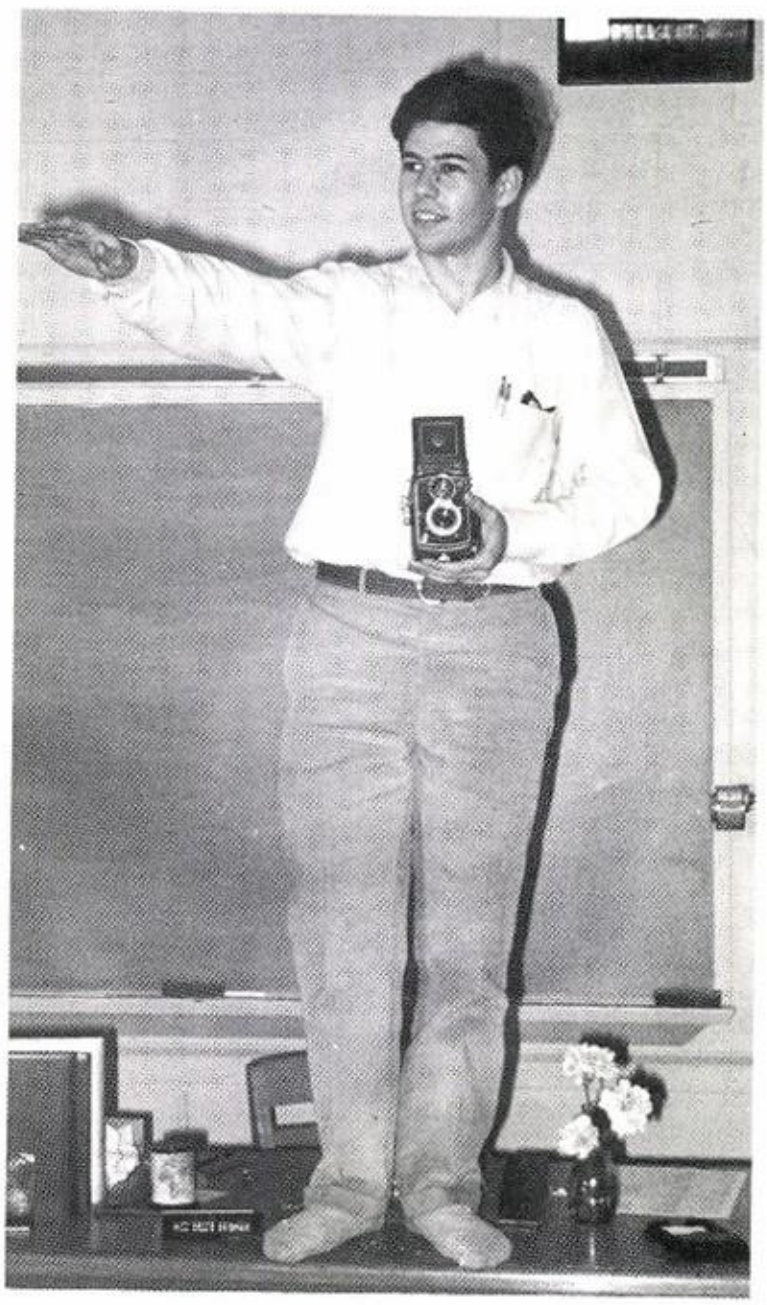
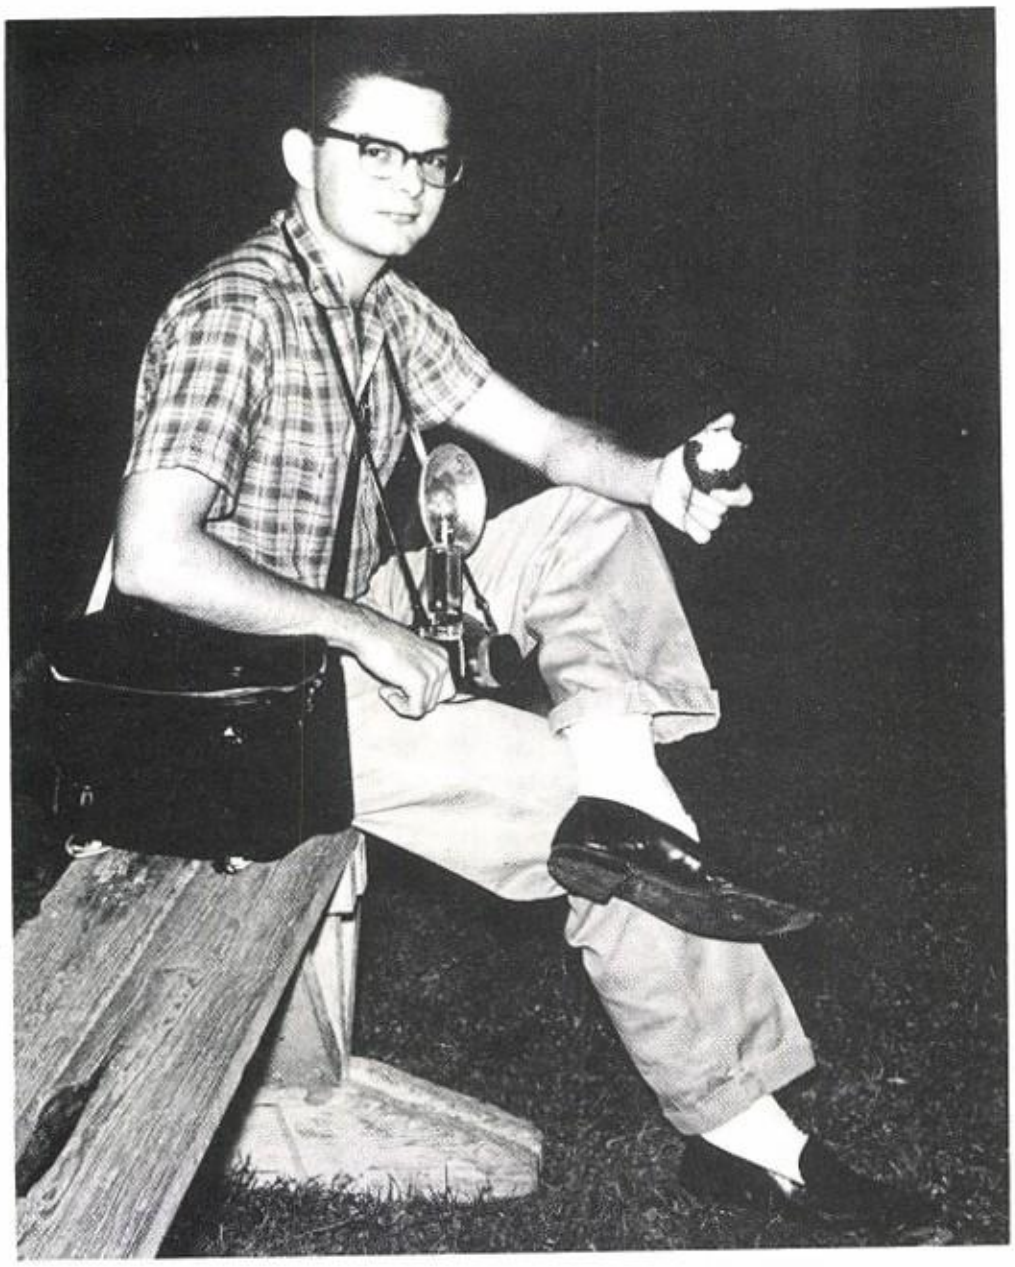
PHOTOGRAPHERS

This year's photographers were among the hardest working members of the Olmos staff. One of the crew of David Grant, Alan Fear, Rocket Reeves, Bill Haddon, and Lee Tift had to put in about as much time taking and developing pictures as the staff member who "asked" them to take them, and all in time for deadlines. These boys were willing to try to do almost anything to get a picture; such as risking falls from rickety ladders, playing impromptu football while loaded down with gadget bags, firing explosive overloaded flashbulbs scant inches from their heads, developing film in the most exotic developers (and even successive combinations of developers) imaginable, and spending long, tedious hours in a darkroom trying to meet deadlines. They had to take pictures of groups of giggling, uncooperative freshmen, ego-centric athletes, and, worst of all, teachers. They were prompt on many appointments nobody else bothered to keep. Yet in spite of their subjects and time limits, they turned out good work, and did it on a very low budget.



This year's head photographer, David Grant, followed Rocket Reeves, who took most of last year's Olmos pictures (except class pictures). By no coincidence, after a year on the job, both boys were quite domineering when they had to take pictures of anything, and were generally cross. This year David managed not only to foist off half his own job (the processing) on the other photographers, but still had time to tell the other staff members how to do their jobs. This shot of him smiling while taking pictures is quite unusual.

Alan Fear, a Sophomore, did more than half of this year's darkroom work, and had to do much of it in a period of about two weeks—just around deadline time. Most of his work this year was in printing, but he will probably be active in taking pictures too, next year. At left, he moonlights as a CIA investigator.



Absence prevented Bill Haddon, a junior, from working as regularly as the remainder of the staff. Nevertheless, he always managed to help whenever disaster, in the form of a deadline, threatened. Below, he takes a few minutes of sunshine in the most convenient place.

Rocket (Robert) Reeves, a Senior and head photographer last year, was unable to take many Olmos pictures this year, but did a good bit of difficult developing and squeezed amazing prints out of quite a few nearly "impossible" negatives. Also Rocket managed to get run over by football players several times during games. At left, he takes a halftime breather.

Lee Tift, a Senior, had equipment trouble for much of the year. When his camera was in good working order he was a help to the staff. At bottom is Lee as one of the football sideline gang.

Below, a typical example of the Olmos staff's gratitude for the excellent photography this year, a blackboard argument.
